Support Persons with Disabilities

Persons with Disabilities

They are an important part of our society, so caring for and developing them will unite the society in all its classes, as a result, we support them in this program in partnership with governmental and private stakeholders

The body alone makes no difference while the soul, the heart, the inspiration, and the principles are the essence of civilizations. Therefore, we believe in caring for and supporting persons with disabilities to be integrated into society and to have equal access through preparing and training them.

- 1 Since the launch of the program, the number of beneficiaries has reached 10,348, through the establishment of physical, functional, and rehabilitation treatment laboratories and lounges for persons with different disabilities, motor and mental, in the relevant centers and associations.

Khair Aljazira for Aljazira staff (Ikha'a)

From social responsibility

for the inner community and in collaboration with Human Resources, we seek to know the need of the staff member and contribute to bringing the work environment to a level of interdependence and cooperation in physical, health, and educational aspects.

Interdependence and altruism from the heart to create a functional, cooperative, and positive society.

- 1 The total number of beneficiaries since the launch of the program was more than 121.
- 2 The number of beneficiaries during this year was 20.

Communities that give community responsibility the highest attention and share of their lives and activities are the fastest and the most capable of overcoming their challenges and achieving their goals.
